

Tom Ridge Is Very Very Worried About America by STEVE VOLK

John Kruk Is Back / God Bless Philly Nuns / Gayborhood Justice / A Terrific Main Line BYO

Philadelphia

SERIES APRIL 2017

The 30 Top-Paying Jobs in Toys

Scout / HOME

THE INSPIRATION
A color-matched living room by designer and HGTV host Emily Henderson.

Jack Brown Rug, $1,100 at Anthropologie

Color Theory

Goodbye, greige! Move beyond muted rooms with a few well-placed pops of color that instantly transform mundane spaces into cheery masterpieces.—E.L.

Miss Madeline tufted sofa in sagegreen, $1,495 at Anthropologie

Merle O'Brien velvet velvet pillow in plum, $120 at ABC Carpet & Home

Teardrop vase, from $45 at Colorful Objects

Merle armchair, $445 at Anthropologie

Colorful geometric rug, $1,100 at Anthropologie

THE EXPERT SAYS
"Choose a handful of colors and repeat them. Then bring in one unifying item, like a rug, painting or coffee table, that pulls all the colors together to create continuity and purpose."
—MONA LISA BERKMAN, founder and CEO, Mona Lisa Berkman Interiors, Manassas